LOAFED HALF THE TIME.

The late George A. Hearn, millionaire are collector of New York, was noted for his kind and reasonable treatment of his employees. Mr. Hearn used to smile at the new scientific management craze, of which he once said at a dinner:

"These scientific management people, with their impossible claims of doubling and trebling a man's labor, remind me of the humble bodcarrier's impossible promise."

"A facetious boss said to a new bodcarrier:

"Look-a-here, friend, don't I hire you to carry bricks up that ladder by the day?"

"Yes, sir," said the bodcarrier, touching his cap.

"Well, I've had my eye on you, and you've only done it half a day today. You spent the other half coming down the ladder."

"The bodcarrier touched his cap again.

"I'll try to do better tomorrow, sir," he said humbly."

HE WASN'T HISSING. One of the ushers approached a man who appeared to be annoying those about him.

"Don't you like the show?" "Yes, indeed."
